

TITLE: An Ultimatum...or an Invitation?

TEXT: Leviticus 19:1-2; 9-18; Matthew 5:38-48

Questions to reflect on this week:

- To what extent do I use up all my resources – my time, my talents and my money – to meet my own needs and wants?
- What might it look like for me to leave some margin for the marginalized?
- What would it look like for me to ‘turn the other cheek’ this week – at work, with my children, with my spouse, in my neighbourhood or in traffic?
- What opportunities to ‘go the extra mile’ am I missing out in my daily life?
- To what extent am I creatively using the gifts I’ve been given to share the grace I’ve been given?
- What can I do better, starting this week?
